

Street Talk

Three Cheers for Three Years!

The Kitchen Engine is celebrating three years in business this week, with chef demos, door prizes, and savings for their customers! Stop by on September 9, 10, and 11 to partake in their anniversary events and specials --from specialty food and beverage tasting to product and food demonstrations, plus $1,500 worth of door prizes!

And while you're there, get a head start on holiday entertaining and sign up for a cooking class for yourself or your kids. For a schedule of events click here, or for more information call 509.328.3335. The Kitchen Engine is located in the Flour Mill at 621 W. Mallon Ave.

Spokefest: A Fun Bike Ride for Everyone!

The 2nd Annual Spokefest is Sunday, September 13, beginning in Riverfront Park at 9:30am for the River Loop ride, and 10am for the Park Loop. This event is perfect for riders of all skill level, whether you're pumpin' up the old tires and dusting off your seat or riding daily, this ride is for you!

Spokefest's inaugural ride was an amazing success last year, with over 1,200 riders with a range of cycling experience. And this year is expected to be bigger and better! Registration is still open, and can be done online at Spokefest.org, where you can get more information about the route, the day's festivities and details for riders.

Celebrate the end of summer with this fun and refreshing way to see the Spokane River and enjoy your community. Come Downtown and "Get your bike on!"
