The Father of All Father's Days

The Spokane community is celebrating the 100th anniversary of Father's Day like no other city can, because Spokane is the birthplace of Father's Day! So to commemorate this occasion, Spokane is getting in the spirit with events, a garage tour, a special locally brewed beer, concerts and more!

To learn about these great events, ways you can treat dad extra special this year or some of the history behind this holiday, visit FathersDayBirthPlace.com.

U. District Board Seeks Non-Profit Applicant

The University District Development Association is seeking an applicant from a non-profit agency to serve on the newly established organization's Board of Directors. The selected Non-Profit member will serve a three year term and will sit with 14 other elected representative board members to guide revitalization and development opportunities within the University District.

Applications are due June 18 and are available at [the University District website](http://the University District website), as well as a list of current board members. All interested Non-Profit agencies are encouraged to apply. Applicants for the Non-Profit board member position are not restricted to the University District boundaries.
