

Street Talk

First Friday Variety!

This Friday, March 5 is First Friday, with captivating exhibits at the Chase Gallery, Kolva/Sullivan Gallery and Barrister Winery for example, and new participants like Clay Connection in the University District and Urbanna Natural Spa and Salon.

There are also great discounts at Auntie's bookstore, Finders Keepers and more, plus a late night fashion show at Sante. Visit any one of the many venues to find your favorite piece of art, glass of wine or new spot! Click here for a complete list of participants or pick up the March 4 Issue of the Inlander.

High $5's All Around!

If you haven't checked out Downtown's first grocery store, now is a great time to do it! Click here for a great deal from Main Market, then head to 44 W. Main before Monday, March 15 for your "high $5" discount!

Spring Safety Tips, Reminders & Resources

As the seasons change, we like to take the opportunity to remind the Downtown community of ways you can keep our neighborhood clean, safe and friendly.

Remember you can contact the Downtown Spokane Security Ambassadors Monday-Saturday, 11:30am-9pm at 509.353.9111 for street disturbances, employee or customer escorts and more. To report graffiti or other cleaning needs to our Clean team, please call 509.456.0580.

If you or your staff are looking for resources, we've created some quick references to get you started!

Smart Parking Tips

- Never leave anything of value in plain sight. Place all shopping bags in the trunk, not in the front or back seats where they are visible.
- Always have your keys ready when approaching a car.
- Never leave pets unattended in your vehicle, especially during the summer months.
- When using public parking lots, be sure to use a key or the tool on the parking pay box to push your money fully in the slots.
