

Spokane is a "City on the Move!" The city's urban core is flourishing with a redevelopment renaissance. Investments valued over $3.4 billion have transformed Spokane and generated a "Downtown Renaissance," spearheaded by the Downtown Spokane Partnership, representing over 800 new and proposed public and private construction projects that bring new vitality and vigor to Spokane. The "Downtown Renaissance" encompasses a mix of commercial, residential, mixed-use, infrastructure, arts and cultural, convention, education, government, health care, and non-profit real estate projects that blend award-winning historic restoration and new construction including a state-of-the-art LEED certified building. These projects have created dramatic new momentum and generated significant economic impacts, making Spokane a "City on the Move."
